PRACHUAB KHIRIKHAN lies 90 kms. south of Hua Hin. The most ritualism is THE CITY PILLAR situated at the Koa Luk rd. The pillar is very beautiful, on the top is prapromh which has 4 faces. And the most prominent landmark is a beachside hillrock name KHAO CHONG KRA CHOK (Mirror mountain) which supports a buddhist shrine on the top. When you are on the top you can see the bay & town. PRACHUAB BAY the beach is curve & beautiful. Tourists always come to watch the sunrise in the early morning time for the view is very fantastic.

MANAO BAY which ahead from Prachuab bay in the Air Force 53. The beach is clean with clear water arounded with many trees can come to relax & swim.

NATIONAL PARK SAM ROI YOD drive south to PRANBURI in the National Park, passing through pineapple plantations & sugar-cane to an unspoiled fishing village (Ban Bang Pu) Proceed by a simple fishing boat to a quiet beach. PHRAYANAKORN CAVE a beautiful "Sala" erected by King Rama V. Sensible walking shoe are essential. Also SAI & KAEWCAVE situated at the same park. This ancient caverns have petrified waterfall, monstrous limestone domes with dange stone tentacles. PA KLANG AOW The National forest is full of many kinds of tree species. Just only 2 kms. from Amphuer Bangsaparn, close to the sea. There is a lot big suitable for camping.

Thai Currency
 A baht is divided into 100 satang. Coins and notes acurrently are in use as follows:

Close-up Side Trips

HUA HIN & CHA-AM

Less than four hours by road or rail from Bangkok, Hua Hin with its 3 kms. long white sand beach and small fishing village has long had an air of exclusivity thanks to favouritism by Thai royalty and Bangkok's wealthy elite. The area retains more of a Thai family ambience than other touristy destinations. The weekend getaway of Cha-am is a lovely long stretch of beach that has become popular with youthful groups of Bangkokians. Around 40 kms. from Petchaburi, the resort is extremely peaceful during weekdays, with plenty of delicious seafood to choose from.
